Introduction to Tourist Attractions

The Dongyanshan Route starts from Daxi and the Dongyanshan Forest Recreation Area is located in Fuxing District, Taoyuan City. It belongs to the tail end of the Xueshan Mountain Range. When viewed from Amuping in Taoyuan, the shape of the mountain resembles a reclining girl with big eyes looking towards the east, hence the name "Dongyanshan". The entire area covers nearly 1,000 hectares and boasts over 300 hectares of stunning willow tree scenery. The highest point in the area is "Dongyanshan" at an elevation of 1,212 meters, offering panoramic views of Taoyuan, Sanxia, and the Tamsui River.

1 TAOYUAN BUS DAXI STATION

Daxi Old Street
The main area encompasses three historical streets: Heping Road, Zhongshan Road, and Zhongyuan Road. The architectural style showcases predominantly Baroque facades, full of cultural and historical charm.

2 DAXI STATION

Daxi Wood Art Ecomuseum
The Ecomuseum consists of eleven main buildings, including Hall No.1, Wude Hall, Native History Hall, Craftsman Story House, Li Teng-Fang's Old Mansion, Wooden Furniture Hall, Wood Lifestyle Hall, June 24 Story House, Arts & Crafts Exchange Hall, Arts & Crafts Center (including residency space), and the Feng Fei-Fei Story House. All of these buildings are open for free visits.

3 SANCENG · DATIELIAO OLD TRAIL

Datieliao Historical Trail
The trail is an approximately 5-kilometer-long ancient pathway and is renowned as one of the popular hiking routes. The ancient bridge along the trail was once an important route between Daxi and Pingxi during the Qing Dynasty. The trail offers picturesque scenery, blending harmoniously with cultural and historical features.

5 CAOLINGJIAO · TOMIMA GARDEN FARM

Tomita Garden Farm
The farm offers various European-style landscapes such as the Crystal Church, a castle and a huge grass lawn, providing great opportunities for Instagram-worthy photos. The farm also features adorable animals like miniature horses, musk pigs, and regular horses that visitors can feed, making it an ideal destination for family outings.

6 CIHU

Cihu Mausoleum (front of Cihu Lake)
The Cihu Mausoleum is famous for being the resting place of the late President Chiang Kai-Shek. Cihu is divided into the front and back Cihu Lake, with enchanting watercolors and the beauty of the scenery similar to the areas south of the Yangtze River. Mr. Chiang chose this location because it reminded him of his hometown and named it Cihu out of his deep affection for his mother.

9 KZYAY · DAXI TEA FACTORY

Daxi Old Tea Factory
Designed based on the blueprint of the Darjeeling Tea Factory in India, the Daxi Old Tea Factory showcases a blend of Taiwanese and Japanese architectural styles, reflecting a diverse cultural influence. The main color tone of the building is blue, whether it is the window lattice and beam-column, the shaped shelves, the walls, the art paintings, and so on. The low-key blue-toned fit exceptionally well with this brick building mixed with the cypress roof frame of the tea factory.

10 JIAOBANSHAN PARK

Jiaobanshan Park
Also known as "Fuxing Park," is located on the southwest side of Jiaobanshan. The park is adorned with tall maple trees, offering a beautiful sight of autumn foliage. It is also home to giant ancient pine trees and blooming plum trees, creating a stunning floral sea display during the blossom season.
